Willard Norvell Will Probably Get Off.
In the case of the United States agt. Willard S. Norvell Justice Bradley this morning made Commissioner Brandenberg, to be proceeded with according to law. Norvell, it will be remembered, was a clerk in the Treasury Department, and, being charged with embezzlement, ment, and, being charged with embezzlement, was arrested, plead guilty and sentenced December 12 to pay a fine of $500 and be committed till the fine be paid. After remaining in jail over thirty days he applied to United States Commissioner Brandenberg for his discharge under the poor convicts act. On motion of the United States attorney a writ of certiorari was issued, and the case was certified to the Court in General Term, when Mr. French, for the petitioner, filed a motion to quash the writ. This motion was granted and the case remanded back.

Norvell will now, on showing that he is unable to pay the fine, be discharged.

The opening of the mission last night at St. Aloysius Church by the Jesuit Fathers was something extraordinary in the line of mission ary work. Although the first week is for wome only, before 7:30 p. m. both the lower and upper church were crowded, so that two mission services had to be conducted instead of one as originally intended. The Rev. Jas. J. Himmel preached in the lower church, while the large congregation in the church proper was addressed by the Rev. Matthew McDonald, S. J.

Against Changing the One Mile Limit Law.
At a largely attended meeting of St. Paul's Catholic Total Absinence and Reading Union, held last evening in the parish hall, addresses were made protesting against the proposed amendment to the one mile limit law, to limit the restriction on the sale of liquor to that area outside the city's corporate limits, and resolutions were passed condemning the same. A committee, composed of Capt. Patrick O'Farrell, Charles A. Dunn and J. D. Leonard, were appointed to present the resolutions to the subcommittee of the House District committee having charge of the matter.

Social Entertainments of the Fashionable People at the Capital. THE CHINESE FETE WEEK.

and Luncheons-Personal Notes of In-

The members of the Chinese legation are

The members of the Chinese legation are celebrating a festival week, which commenced on Friday evening with Mr. Ho's dancing party. They had another celebration on Saturday night, when thirty or forty children were present to enjoy the feast of lanterns by invitation of Mr. Pung. The festival has a couple of days more to run, like all other periods of Chinese rejoicing, and it marks a very happy time in the celestial calendar. Minister Tsui being absent in Cuba, the hospitalities of the legation are dispensed by Mr. Ho and Mr. Pung. Mrs. Tsui chaperoned the gatherings, both on Friday and Saturday evenings, and at the latter party Baby Tsui was present and was the center of much juvenile admiration. Mrs. the center of much juvenile admiration. Mrs. Peachy, Mr. and Mrs. Sevellon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Eliiott and Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Galt were also present on Saturday night to watch the gay proceedings. In the throng of little folks dancing in the ball room were Leila and Carrie Peachy, Emma Brown, Gertrude Brown, Master Phelps Brown, Helen, Julia, Mary and Nellie Monroe, Julia and Caroline Huff, Lizzie Taylor, Miss Morris, Miss Bean, Masters Brian Overton and Taylor, Lizzie Masters Brian, Overton and Taylor, Lizzie Taylor and Sadie Luttrell. The feast of lanterns in China gives the opportunity for the greatest street parade of the year. The streets the festivity. The procession keeps moving all day long till midnight. The great object of attention in the parade is an enormous white silk balloon, called the pearl, through which countless small lanterns can be seen twinkling.

around the same way, much to the entertain ment of the parading throngs of people. the fumes of incense went up from a dragon-shaped cup. On either side of the incense were two red candles burning. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Ffoukle were at home to an invited company on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7, upon which occasion their friends generally saw for the first time the spacious new addition to their house-the tapestry hall. This large room is entirely covered with the handsome collection of antique tapestries that Mr. Ffoulke has been years in getting together. Mrs. Ffoulke had assisting and Miss Worthington were the efficient help-ers to the hostess. Among those present were Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Dimmick, Mrs. and Miss Foster, Mrs. and Miss Rusk, Admiral Greer, Miss Halsted, Miss Wanamaker.
